

MARVELLESS MARK Keynote Description

Program:

Opportunity Rocks: Re-Energize, Re-engage, and rebuild your rock star teams. Strategies for Success

Did you respond or react during the pandemic? Did you ask is this happening to me or for me?

In a world of cancelations, labor shortages, forced changes, and shorter deadlines people need to be re-energized, re-engaged, and unleash their inner rock star! Marvelless Mark will give you four solid rock star success principles in an interactive and engaging EXPERIENCE! You will leave with new, easy-to-apply, understandable strategies and tactics that will show you how to perform at a higher level, drive change, work more efficiently in teams, and take daily massive action.

Mark's presentation is spot on for opening and closing sessions or hard-to-fill spots. It falls under the categories of Leadership, 10x Thinking, Creating Change, Teamwork, and Accountability and Action. With the built-in drumming element, it also qualifies as a health and wellness program.

Get ready to Rock N Learn.

You and your teams will learn:

- The raw power of unrealistic goals. Why to 10x Them
- How to use Steve Jobs' model for business success (hint: it's not what you think)
- The single most important element of enduring team success.
- How and when to break the rules and strategically disrupt.
- The importance of not creating satisfied customers and instead, creating raving fans!
- How to thrive through change by creating change.
- How to be heard above the noise in an overcrowded industry.
